

THEMATIC WORKING GROUP 7

Learning from National Policy Experiences

Professor David Gibson, Curtin University, Australia

Professor Jill Downie, Curtin University Australia

Dr Louise Starkey, Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand

Dr Jason Zagami, Griffith University, Australia

Dr Stefania Bocconi, National Research Council of Italy, Italy

Professor John Dewar Wilson, Australia

Dr Joyce Malyn-Smith, Education Development Center, USA

Dr. Sandra Elliott, Brightbytes, USA

Challenges

- STRATEGIES FOR CREATING FUTURE READY POLICY VISIONS

Develop future ready policy visions aligned with global development goals and contextualized within communities using technology to facilitate and democratise the process.

- STRATEGIES FOR ACHIEVING SYSTEMIC PERSPECTIVES

Use real-time data systems to monitor and evaluate educational processes and outcomes through a balance of valued indicators in dynamic systems models.

- STRATEGIES FOR PROMOTING COMMITMENT TO POLICY LEARNING

Develop individual and organizational capacity to develop, contextualize, implement and learn from policy experiences and action plans based on transparent data sharing.

- STRATEGIES FOR DEVELOPING AND IMPLEMENTING POLICY PROCESSES

Strategically use new technologies and new ways of working that engage stakeholders including computational support systems to create insights for action and address inequalities.